From the Louisville Democrat. Love in the Law.

O love that quivers in a leaf, And blossoms in a rose. That smiles within the garnered sheaf, And in the sunlight glows-Sweet; tender love, that whispers low In every passing breeze, That murmers in the streamlet's flow, And tremble in the trees-

That lingers on the mountain's brow, And drapes the shadowy vale, Or shimmers on the fallen snow In moonbeams soft and pale-That gleams in every twinkling star, That glistens in the sky, And floats upon the clouds afar So grandly sailing by-

That lives beneath the silent sea, And pulsates in its waves, And sings in holy harmony With shells in ocean caves-Majestic love, that leads our gaze To rocky hights sublime, Unsculptured monuments of praise PIMESTREET, CYNTHIANA, KY. Upon the shores of time-

That stretches its unmeasured length The spacious earth around, And writes the story of its strength In blessings that abound-Behold, sweet love, with grateful glow, We worship at thy shrine, And feel a thrill of joy to know

Such blessings are divine.

But oh, sweet love, so matchless, grand, We feel a holier awe, As with uncovered feet we stand In presence of thy law-Of love so true and strong, It lays its iron hand on sense

To save the soul from wrong. That tears the tendrils of the heart From twining that would kill And snaps the quivering chords apart, And leave them bleeding still. That fearless plucks the dear right eye, And severs the right hand, To fix the longing gaze on high, To grasp on Heaven's pure hand.

That law whose penalties are made For love's sweet sake so dire, That human souls in fear, in dread, May shun the eternal fire. Aye, made so dire that souls may learn Their fulest, truest worth, And learning, grasp the infinite, And prove their heavenly birth.

All hallowed love, so pure, so plain, How great that strength must be Which nothing spares of joy or pain To make us all like thee. Behold, we claim thee all divine. And bow with tenderest awe, As gratefully before thy shrine We own thee in the law. June 19. 1868.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this ex-The reputation this ex-cellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous dis-case, where the system scemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders which constant Scrottlous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfection for the constitution, and invites the attack of enfection for the constitution, and invites the attack of enfection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly developinto one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercless may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by cruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relef, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARS.1P.1R.IL.LA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysiplelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia. Dropsy, Heart Disease. Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the nuscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Veneral and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhea or Whites, Ucerine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigerating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanae, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extran power upon trial.
